

Fan Code of Conduct

The Jaguars want all fans attending our games to enjoy the experience in a responsible manner. TIAA Bank Field is committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience for all fans, both in the stadium and in the parking lots. Please treat all fans with respect and courtesy. When attending an event you are asked to refrain from the following:

- Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, dangerous or illegal in nature
- Standing in aisles, smoking (including e-cigarettes) in non-smoking areas, or fighting
- Intoxication or other signs of alcohol impairment that results in irresponsible behavior
- Foul or abusive language or obscene gestures, signage or clothing
- Interference with the progress of the game (including throwing objects onto or entering the playing field)
- Failing to follow instructions of stadium personnel
- Verbal or physical harassment (of any kind) of opposing team fans or stadium partner employees or agents working at TIAA Bank Field

Event patrons and season ticket members are responsible for their conduct as well as the conduct of their guests and/or persons occupying their seats. Stadium staff will promptly intervene to support an environment where all guests - home and visiting - can enjoy the event free from the above behavior. While standing and cheering is permitted, please keep in mind that continued standing can interfere with others' ability to enjoy the game from their seats. To be courteous to all guests in attendance, we ask fans to stand and cheer when appropriate with the flow of the game.

Event patrons and guests who violate these provisions will be subject to ejection without refund and potential loss of season ticket privileges or other privileges for future games. Fans who are ejected for violation of the Fan Code of Conduct will be required to complete an online Fan Code of Conduct class which includes a fee prior to returning to any NFL stadium.
