

Washington Commanders Fan Code of Conduct

It's everyone's responsibility to ensure each fan's FedExField experience is great. We're looking for you to pledge your support to make games and events at FedExField safe and enjoyable for everyone.

Respect all fans by following these simple rules:

- Foul or offensive language is discouraged
- No fighting or engaging in unruly behavior
- Don't throw anything
- If you drink, drink responsibly
- Don't engage in any conduct that is harassing, demeaning, derogatory, or hostile
- Always follow stadium rules and instructions from stadium staff

Our stadium staff is here to help. We will promptly intervene when someone isn't being respectful or is breaking the rules. Irresponsible fans violating these rules or possessing prohibited items may be ejected and denied entry into the stadium for future games and events in our sole discretion.

See someone or something that is disrespectful? Say something!
Text "SAFE" to 69050 for assistance or call our game day hotline at 301-276-6100.

Be responsible and respect everyone's right to enjoy the game! Make FedExField the best place anywhere to watch great NFL Football.
